

Save the Date

Fall 2010 Learning Institute

Implementing Evidence-Based Practice:

From Principles to Applications

Tuesday, September 21st – Wednesday, September 22nd

Indiana University, Bloomington

The Learning Institute will include a national keynote speaker from the Crime and Justice Institute and breakout sessions that will provide concrete tools for implementing EBP in community corrections. Topics include: Gender-sensitive programming, family-focused initiatives for adult offenders, case planning, enlisting the support of your community, principles of effective interventions, and the Indiana Risk Assessment.

Registration will start on August 15th